

Only from Parker...

a piece of American History

Parker Bicentennial Desk Sets

each with an authentic relic of the signing
of the Declaration of Independence.

Each Parker Bicentennial Desk Set is furnished with a solid pewter plate embedded with a wood relic from the timbers of Independence Hall.

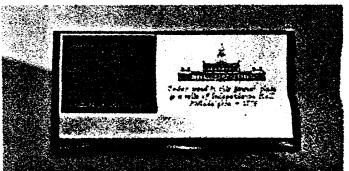

(A) Colonial Writing Stand

A magnificent gift. An authentic replica of a classic 18th century writing stand by American designer Henry Will (1730-1800). Hand-crafted in solid pewter by one of America's finest pewtersmiths. Velvet-lined interior, hinged lid, compartment for pens in one side, three storage spaces in other. Complete with two Parker 75 Americana limited edition pewter pens.

(B) Bicentennial Desk Set

A memorable award or gift that is sure to be treasured. Pewter frame surrounds solid block of hand-rubbed imported rosewood. Furnished with two Parker Classic ball pens in brushed stainless steel. Separate pewter nameplate can be engraved with any occasion or sentiment and mounted on base.

B - 200⁰⁰
A - 350⁰⁰

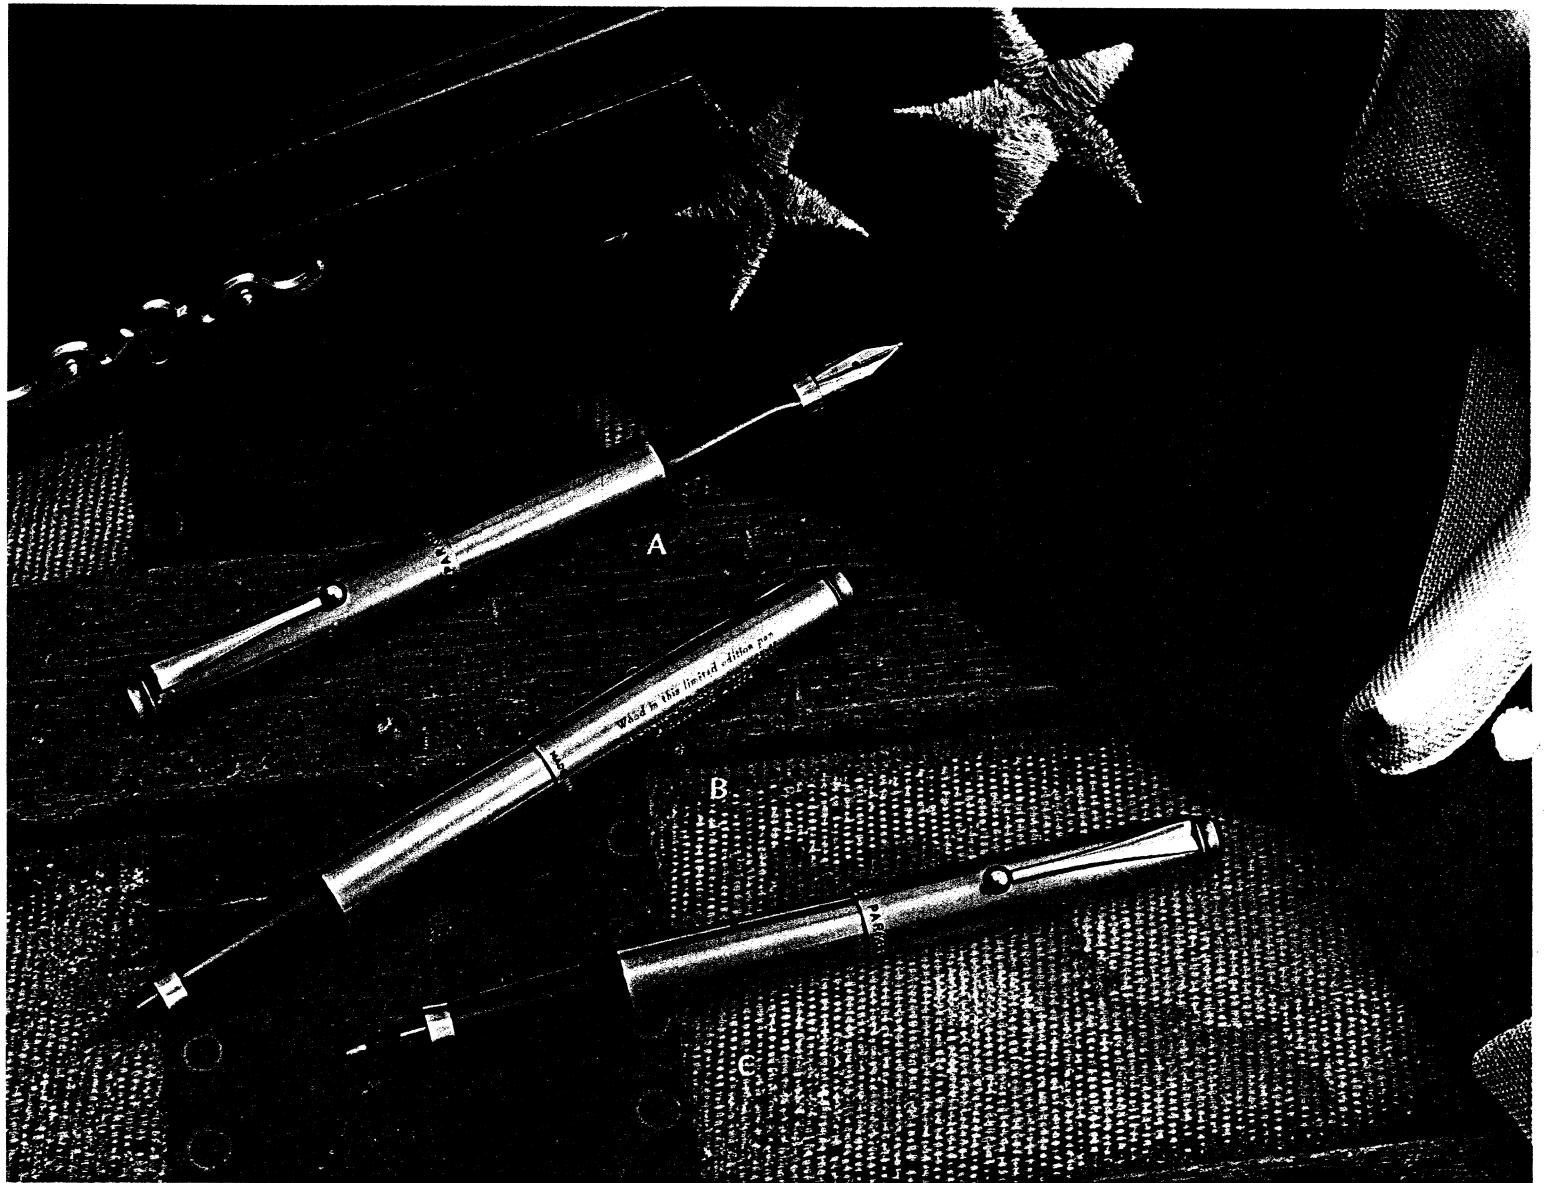

A historic wood relic
from Independence Hall

 PARKER
World's most wanted pens

May, 1975

LIMITED EDITION

Only from Parker... a piece of American History

Parker 75 Americana pens crafted in Colonial pewter
each with an authentic relic of the signing
of the Declaration of Independence.

The wood embedded in the crown of each pen was part of the timbers of Independence Hall, Philadelphia, where - on July 4, 1776 - John Hancock, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and 53 other patriots penned their signatures to the Declaration of Independence, the document that created a new nation, the United States of America.

Parker 75 Americana pens will be produced in a limited edition, each pen sold individually numbered to enhance its value.

Handsome packaged in a handmade, solid mahogany chest with brass nameplate, lock and fittings - a faithful reproduction of an 18th century jewel box.

(A) Parker 75 Americana Fountain Pen, (B) Parker 75 Americana Soft Tip Pen,
(C) Parker 75 Americana Ball Pen

Pen - $100.00
ST $100.00
BP $100.00

A historic wood relic
from Independence Hall

 PARKER
World's most wanted pens

Only from Parker... a piece of American History

FREEDOM CUBE DESK SETS

Choice of four medallions in Colonial pewter.

Aluminum Cube

2 x 2-inch cube of solid aluminum with Classic ball pen in brushed stainless steel.

Item No.	Description	Retail Price
8-517-9
E-209	Minute Man	$ 25.00
E-219	Independence	25.00
E-229	Liberty Bell	25.00
E-239	Spirit of '76	25.00

Plastic Cube

2 x 2-inch cube of highly polished jet black plastic with a Parker Jotter ball pen.

Item No.	Description	Retail Price
8-510-9
E-509	Minute Man	$ 10.00
E-519	Independence	10.00
E-529	Liberty Bell	10.00
E-539	Spirit of '76	10.00

Blue-medium refill in ball pen.

World's most wanted pens
PARKER

From Achibald Willard's famous painting The Spirit of '76. The painting was first exhibited at the Centennial Celebration in Philadelphia in 1876 and now hangs in Abbot Hall, Mainehead, Massachusetts.

Spirit of '76

Minute men shed the first blood in the War for American freedom on April 19, 1775. This stately recalls the battle of Lexington on April 19, 1775. This is shown against the British troops of a "embattled farmers", who had agreed to defend their lands against the British. Shown with slim, elegant Parker minute's rifle.

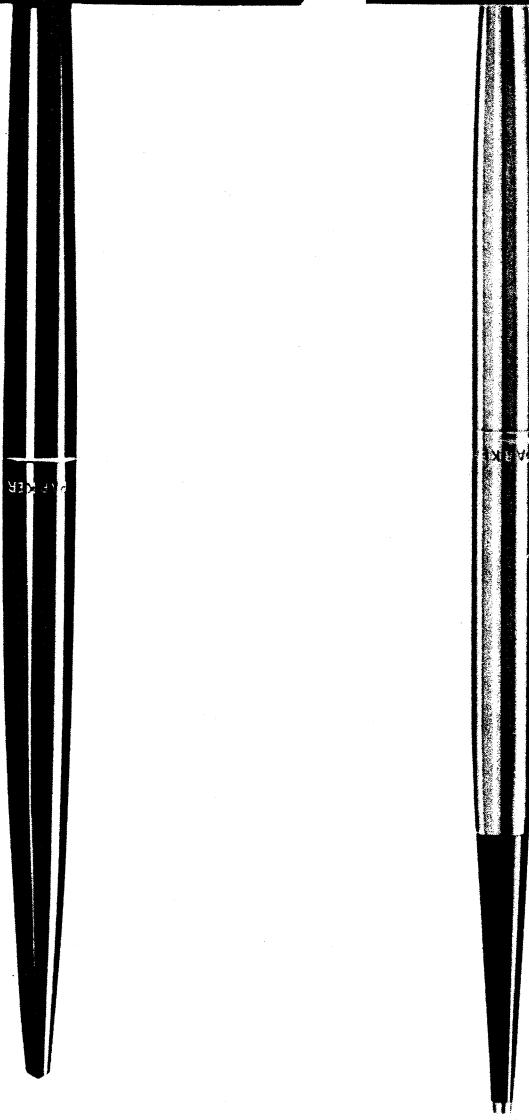

Minute Man

Independence

Parker Desk Sets with "American Freedom" medallions in Colonial Pewter

1776-1976
To Commemorate America's Bicentennial

4, 1776. In the Piping by John Trumbull, Thomas Jefferson is shown addressing the document to John Hancock, president of the Congress. Land unto all the liberty throughout the Americas is a symbol of the independence of the Colonies from Great Britain. The colonies adopted the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. This stately recalls the Minute men who had agreed to defend their lands against the British. Shown with slim, elegant Parker minute's rifle.

in brushed stainless steel on a 2 x 2-inch cube of solid aluminum. Classic ball pen, handsomely styled in brushed stainless steel on a 2 x 2-inch cube of solid aluminum. Parker ball pen, handsomely styled shown here with a long-witting. Shown here with a long-witting. Massachusetts.

"inhabitants thereof."

Though it is cracked and remains a symbol of the independence of the Colonies from Great Britain. The colonies adopted the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. This stately recalls the Minute men who had agreed to defend their lands against the British. Shown with slim, elegant Parker minute's rifle.

Liberty Bell